About the Books

Picture Books

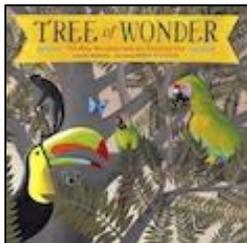

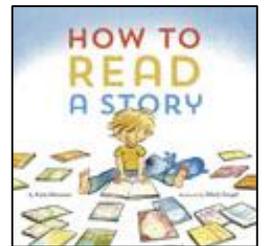

Readers can explore and enjoy the hidden beauty of nature above and below the snow, pond, and garden. These informational picture books illustrated by Christopher Silas Neal include notes for children to learn more about each of these unique ecosystems.

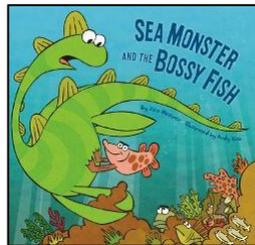

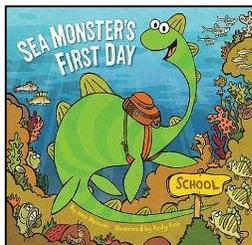

A nonfiction picture book with dazzling illustrations by Matthew Forsyth that shows how one man inspired the ongoing efforts to save and rebuild the world's coral reefs.

Perfect for reading together, this charming picture book with imaginative illustrations by Mark Siegel celebrates becoming a reader in 10 easy steps.

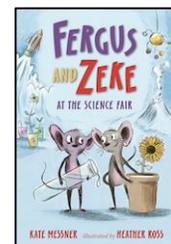

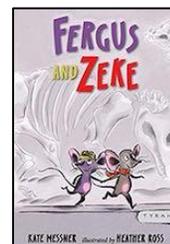

This informational picture book introduces readers to the almendro tree in the Latin American rain forest that is host to more than a thousand organisms. The colorful and detailed illustrations by Simona Mulazzani and factual sidebars provide additional material for curious young scientists and mathematicians.

Young readers will enjoy these charming and colorful stories about Ernest the Sea Monster and learn how to handle familiar challenges at school, like making friends, teasing, and dealing with bullies, in a positive way.

Easy Readers

Join a mouse named Fergus, the class pet in Miss Maxwell's classroom, on his adventures in and out of the classroom with his friend Zeke in these beginning chapter books featuring fun, full-color illustrations by Heather Ross.

Chapter Book Series

Marty McGuire is an energetic and endearing third grader who stars in this funny and entertaining early chapter book series with illustrations by Caldecott Medalist Brian Floca.

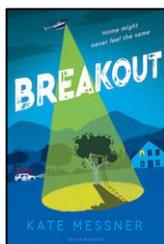

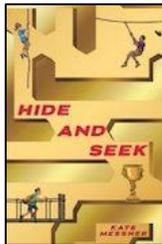

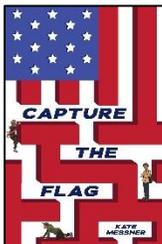

Ranger the golden retriever has been trained as a search-and-rescue dog but can't officially pass the test because he's always getting distracted by squirrels during exercises. One day, he finds a mysterious first aid kit in the garden that transports him back in time to important moments in history! Perfect for fans of adventure and historical fiction, each book in this series includes an author's note that explains the real-life research that went into each story.

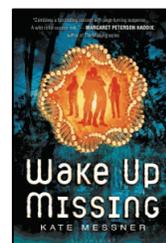

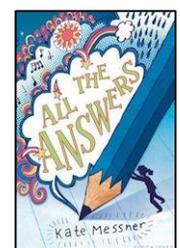

Novels for Advanced Readers Grades 4 and up (due to content)

In these action-packed mysteries, seventh-graders Anne, José, and Henry, junior members of the Silver Jaguar Society, recover valuable stolen artifacts from around the world.

Told through letters, text messages, comics, and other documents collected for a community time capsule, this powerful account of a prison break in a small town examines how seventh graders Nora, her best friend, Lizzie, and the new girl, Elidee, view and understand the event and the complex issues and attitudes that surround it.

Middle-schooler Ava worries about most things, until she discovers a magical pencil that can answer almost any question she poses. An intriguing novel with an unexpected revelation that ultimately shows how Ava learns to face life's uncertainties.

In this suspense-filled, science fiction thriller, Cat hopes to recover from a concussion at I-CAN, the International Center for Advanced Neurology, but instead discovers a sinister secret that endangers all the patients at the facility.
